Feb. 7/42.

Dear Eleanor.

I was delighted to get your letter today with the questionaire inclosed.

First of all Elbert is overburdened with work and at home only a few hours each week. The girl in the Montrose office left a few weeks ago. It is likely that your letter is held there awaiting his attention.

Some of the information you requested, I can give at once. The remainder I will get when I visit my Mother